Newsletter for the Seaside Quilters Guild
Pacific Beach, CA

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What a blowout from our fundraiser! We exceeded our goal and grossed over $4000. Thanks to the entire team that came together only two months ago, but especially Ginny Pence and Jo Vroman!

We have set up a P.O. Box for the guild. You can send check payments there for membership, workshops, road trips and receipts, if you don't use an alternative method. The address is Seaside Quilters Guild P.O. Box 80154 San Diego, CA 92138

Janice Falstitch has been appointed to programs director. She will plan programs for our 2025/2026 season. Thanks, Janice for stepping up!

We have been having some challenges with our bank accounts at Chase. The board approved us to move to another bank if the issues cannot be resolved. Additionally, we have had some challenges as we slowly migrate our financial processes from desktop QuickBooks, to QuickBooks online.

The board voted to have Edie Greenberg and Chris Winger swap positions since Chris is more familiar with QuickBooks online. Going forward, Chris will be treasurer, and Edie will be recording secretary. Thank you to our outgoing Treasurer Debbie Zeller for facilitating the transition. QuickBooks online will streamline and speed up transactions, even when specific board members are traveling.

Please be advised that we have had four different scam emails being circulated among board members asking for money. If you get any emails of this nature and you don't know if they are scams or not, feel free to call me to confirm.

NOVEMBER MEETING

November will be another fun month. Dru from Sew Treasured in Temecula will be bringing us an interesting talk about her journey to quilting. She will also be bringing in a Pop-up shop with fabric and unique notions. I hope everyone brings enough money to make some splurge purchases.

The day after the meeting we'll have a terrific workshop by our own Deborah Lancaster. We will be making quilted coats. We've had a lot of interest, but we still have room for a few more people. I know that the quilted coat I made myself last year from an old quilt is the most comfortable thing I wear all winter. Every time I wear it in public, I get a ton of compliments! If you haven't yet signed up, consider joining us in what will be a fun and profitable workshop.

OCTOBER FUNRAISER BOUTIQUE AND GAME NIGHT

We had a great “FUN-D Raiser” last month with shopping, games, food, and social time.

Thank you to everyone who made crafts for the boutique, bake sale items for the pantry, refreshments for our guests, invited a friend, played games with gusto, SHOPPED, and most importantly were there for set-up and clean-up!

We made over $4,000 which will help with our expenses and programs for the coming year. It was a total guild effort and it certainly proved to be both fun and profitable.

THANK YOU!

Jo Vroman and Ginny Pence

Jo has arranged for Scott Flannigan of 4th & Main Designs to travel to San Diego for a one-day workshop while he is in California for Road. The workshop will be making one of Scott's new patterns reflecting his journey with Spastic Dystonia.

Changes in Seasons II. As for the inspiration for the pattern "Changes in Seasons II". First of all, Flying Geese are one of my favorite quilt units to make, and then also Geese use their "voice" to signal the change of a season to us as they fly south for the winter and north for the summer, much like my voice is signaling another change in this season of my life. The top and bottom rows of this quilt are based on the Choppy Flying Geese that I use in my Logo.

NEW MEMBER EDIE GREENBERG

Edie Greenberg is relatively new to San Diego. She spent most of her life in various parts of Arizona. She and her husband split their time now between Prescott Az and San Diego.

They have 4 children, 6 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. Wow! Needless to say, Edie has made quite a few baby quilts.

But her forte now is art quilts to include embroidery and beading. She has been a long-time guild member in AZ. Now she is an active member of the Visions Museum of Textile Arts. For several years, her quilt designs have been chosen to fly as a Coronado art banner.

Edie heard about the SQG from her friend and neighbor Sue Steven. Following the Covid shutdown and a long period of cancer treatment/ rehab, Edie is excited to connect up with new friends and get back into the quilting world. To that end, she volunteered to be the new treasurer of our Guild. Thank you, Edie!

Aside from quilting, over the years Edie has dabbled in scuba diving, boating, bike riding and even flying. Welcome to the Seaside Quilt guild!

Hi Everyone!

At the November meeting we will have two separate drawings, one for October and one for November. Please put the finishing touches on your UFO's so you can try to win some prizes!

Sign ups started in September for UFO Club, and we are still taking sign ups. It's $10 for the whole Seaside year either cash or check made out to Seaside Quilters Guild. Here is the list of current UFO Club members. You can also sign up next month too. Just visit Judy & Rebecca's UFO club table.

Don't forget to bring your October and November completed UFOs to the November meeting. FYI, 3 Linus tops count for one ticket into the drawing. Also, completed kits count for one ticket into the drawing as well as your regular UFO's. If you aren't going to be at the meeting, send a photo of your completed UFO to Judy Uyemura and I will put a ticket into the drawing for you.

PROJECT LINUS NOVEMBER 2024

NOVEMBER 2024 PROJECT LINUS

The children of San Diego continue to benefit from all your hard work. A big group of wonderful quilters came to the workshop in October and we got so much done. Ten quilts are pin basted and ready for your stitching. They will be available at the November guild meeting.

There will only be one more workshop before the holidays hit. We will meet on Tuesday, November 19. Fortunately, that is the week before Thanksgiving. No Linus workshops in December. However, as always, I am available for individual workdays. Chris Winger and Evette Weiss have come to help with small tasks. I will be receiving the entire stash of a woman who has passed. There should be lots of goodies to sort through.

SIT AND SEW

Every 2nd Monday

Sit and Sew

Jo has made arrangements to use the fellowship hall at Tierrasanta Lutheran Church for Quilt til you Wilt, from 10-3pm on the Second Monday of the Month. A fee of $5/person will be collected as a donation to the church for the use of the facility.

It is recommended that participants bring their lunch as no eateries are within walking distance of the church. Several options, however, are in easy driving range. Ironing boards, iron and worktables will be provided.

LET THE FUN BEGIN!

CHIT CHAT – COMFORT CARDS

We didn't have ChitChat last month, due to the fundraiser, so I hope everyone is ready to sign up for it at the next meeting. The people who have participated are all enthusiastic and have enjoyed it so much. The more fellow Seasideers you meet, the more you'll enjoy the meetings. You will be surprised by how interesting everyone is. Whether someone is a longtime quilter or a novice, we each have knowledge to share.

Make sure you sign up at the check-in table at the door at our November meeting!

COMFORT CARDS

Joyce McCarthy will send a card to any member who needs support.

CCSA: There will be a major Seaside push for replenishing the supply at the Community Christian Service Agency for the month of January (after the holidays). There is a constant need for replenishing the shelves after the holidays - some years even more than the holidays. Locally, our weather turns cooler and the need for socks, undergarments, jackets, and blankets increases dramatically. Plan now and look for these items when out shopping. Pantry items and shelf stable products are always welcomed. Look through the discount sections while grocery shopping - there are usually some great surprise items, Bring what you desire. Your donations are always welcomed and your generosity is amazing. Stitchingly, Lois
