PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I finally got to see the community quilt display at Ocean Beach Library. It was fabulous! Even my husband enjoyed it before roping him into helping us take it down. Many thanks to all who participated.

If you are like me, you are beginning to wrap Christmas gifts to get into the mail for loved ones near and far. Many of my gifts came from the October fundraiser. What a deal to shop without all the stress of going to a mall. We do want to plan the fundraiser for next year beginning soon. So if you don't already have a board or committee role, consider doing this. Just give your name to Jo Vroman; and for the rest of us, start creating.

If you attended our November meeting, you would have picked up our new member directory. Thanks to the membership committee who chased down members who were slow to renew. I did notice that our new P.O. Box mailing address is missing from the book and from our website. Please grab your book right now and add the following: Seaside Quilters Guild P.O. Box 80154 San Diego, CA 92138

Chris Winger, our treasurer has migrated our books to Quick Books online. A BIG job! Thanks Chris. Sally led a team to update our website. Thanks, Sally. You can now book retreats, Road to CA and workshops directly online. No excuses for not bringing a check book to the meeting.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

And since the Holidays are a time of appreciating what we have and giving to others in need, we have three opportunities for you to bring items to our December meeting:

1. CCSA: Looking for socks, food pantry items, etc. or money. Lois is point of contact.
2. Snowman: Looking for new unwrapped toys for kids, or money to buy bikes. Helen H. is. point of contact.
3. Refugee net: Looking for household items, new or used for families relocating in January to San Diego; or money. Sue S. and Mary A. are points of contact.

DECEMBER MEETING

We will be having a potluck, and we will have a usual gift steal BUT, with a twist. We will be swapping EYEGLOSS CASES. That's not the twist!! The twist is that we will be stealing blind! When you bring in your item, it will be placed in a paper lunch sack that will be stapled shut with its own unique number. You will also receive a copy of that number, so you don't accidentally steal your own gift! This should be fun! Go crazy designing and making an eyeglass case. I know I can always use a new, creative case.

SEASIDE HOLIDAY DECEMBER POTLUCK

As in the past, the December meeting is a POTLUCK. Guild members are each to bring a dish for the table. See what has been assigned by using the first letter of your last name. Looking forward to a fun evening with members to close 2024.

If your last name begins with the letter below, please bring

A-H Main Dish

J-L Appetizer

M-P Salad

R-S Dessert

T-Z Side Dish

Jo has arranged for Scott Flannigan of 4th & Main Designs to travel to San Diego for a one-day workshop while he is in California for Road. The workshop will be making one of Scotts new patterns reflecting his journey with Spastic Dystonia.

Changes in Seasons II. As for the inspiration for the pattern “Changes in Seasons II”. First of all, Flying Geese are one of my favorite quilt units to make, and then also Geese use their “voice” to signal the change of a season to us as they fly south for the winter and north for the summer, much like my voice is signaling another change in this season of my life. The top and bottom rows of this quilt are based on the Choppy Flying Geese that I use in my Logo.

PROJECT LINUS NOVEMBER 2024

DECEMBER 2024 PROJECT LINUS

Many, many thanks to those of you who turned in completed quilts at the November Guild meeting. You all do such beautiful work. Our total for the year is now 227! With the holidays coming there will be NO WORKSHOP in December. January is not a good time either with the retreat and the Road to California show.

Here's a number game for you. Quilts in production right now break out like this:

- Seven tops were turned in at the November meeting.
- Seven adorable quilts are ready for a long armer to take home.
- Nine quilt tops are sandwiched, pin basted and ready for you to take home to quilt.
- Eighteen finished quilts are ready to deliver to the Project Linus coordinator.
- Twenty quilt tops are ready to get pin basted at the next workshop.

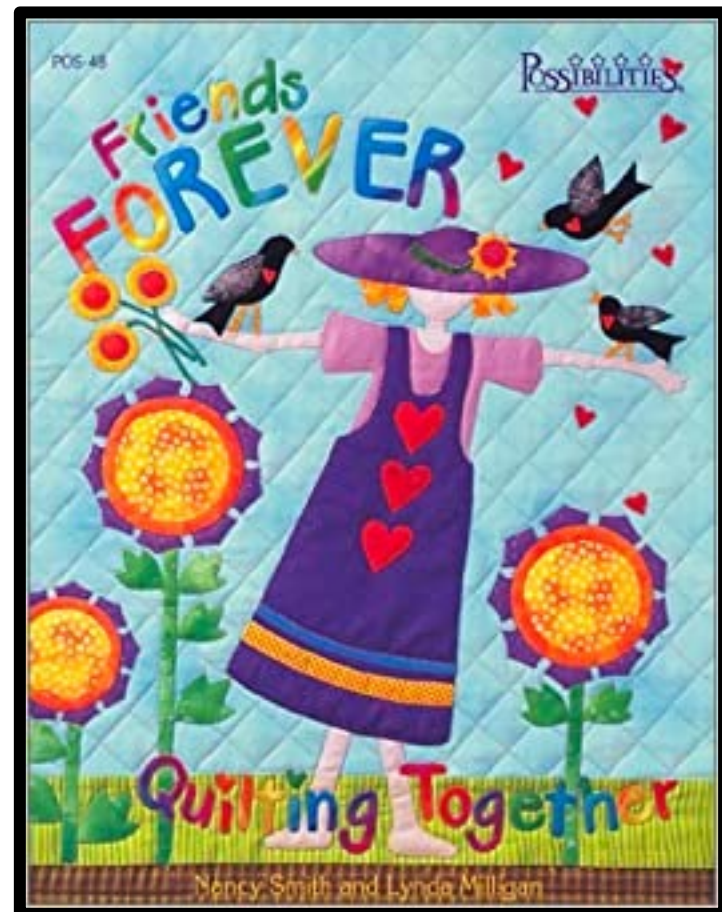

Impressive amount of love goes into each of these quilts. You all are fantastic people. We will get started again with workshops on the third Tuesday in February. Project Linus would welcome any assistance you would like to offer. There are boxes of cute fabric just waiting to be cut into kits and made into quilts for the youngsters in our county.

SIT AND SEW

Every 2nd Monday

Sit and Sew

Jo has made arrangements to use the fellowship hall at Tierrasanta Lutheran Church for Quilt til you Wilt, from 10-3pm on the Second Monday of the Month. A fee of $5/person will be collected as a donation to the church for the use of the facility.

It is recommended that participants bring their lunch as no eateries are within walking distance of the church. Several options, however, are in easy driving range. Ironing boards, iron and worktables will be provided.

THANK YOU, JO VROMAN FOR SETTING UP
THE RETREAT AT
MISSOURI QUILT COMPANY.
WE HAD SO MUCH FUN!

Jo did a fabulous job with arranging this retreat. Sally (standing on the far right) arranged a sewing basket thank you for Jo, inviting everybody to add something as a thank you.

CHIT CHAT – COMFORT CARDS

Chitchat

We took a month off due to October's (very successful) fundraiser, but Chitchat is back! Whether you're a new member or a long-time Seaside, be sure to put your name in the box on the check-in table at our December meeting. We can all set aside an hour or 2 to spend some time with another quilter and cheer one another on during the busy holiday season. Get together and brainstorm gift ideas for those difficult-to-buy-for family members or take a little time to just relax with a new friend over coffee. New acquaintances and long-time friends both need a respite from the frenzy at this time of year-spend your break with a kindred spirit!

Make sure you sign up at the check-in table at the door at our December meeting!

COMFORT CARDS

Joyce McCarthy will send a card to any member who needs support.

CCSA:

Generosity is the hallmark of December. The winter cold is coming soon. Collect items at those holiday sales for the pantry and hygiene areas at CCSA. Also gather socks, gloves, beanies, and baby items. The next delivery will be in January in order to help CCSA restock their shelves from the holiday influx. I will gladly accept items at both December and January meetings.
