2025

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thanks to all the generous donations to CCSA, Snowman and Refugee Net at our December meeting. Your gifts are inspiring during this season. Some of you even donated furniture for Refugee Net, the week after the meeting. The families have begun to arrive and will appreciate your donations.

Don't forget, CCSA will also be collecting donations at our January meeting: socks, food pantry items, etc. or money. Lois is point of contact.

We have a very busy January to look forward to. The Road to CA bus is nearly full, the January 27 workshop is full and the Feb. 5 th workshop is full. There is currently room available at the January retreat if you want to decompress over the holidays and spend time sewing at the Villa.

The January program on Jan 7 th is by Jean Impey. She will give us an insider's look into the textile industry.

If you are heading to the Road to California, be sure to get a selfie with yourself and our SAN DIEGO quilt that will be featured there.

Happy New Year!

JANUARY – JUNE 2025 CHALLENGE

Hi everyone!!

We have changed direction for the 2025 Challenge. It seems our initial idea (get my pun?) was a bit too uninteresting. Instead, we'd like you to bring in a quilting book or magazine you already own. I know I have at least a dozen that are very interesting to me, but I have never made a quilt from one of them!!!

The challenge will start in January, and we will have the reveal in May. If you want to enter, please bring $5.00 so we can have a nice little pool for prizes. We'll have all the details at the January meeting.

JANUARY 2025 PROGRAM

In January we will have Jean Impey speaking to us about "An Insiders Look into the Textile Industry." It should be interesting and perhaps give us a different way to look at the fabrics we buy.

Jean is renowned for her boundless creativity, signature style, and infectious enthusiasm. Guided by Albert Einstein’s wisdom—“The easiest way to be creative is to try something different, even if doubt lingers”—she inspires others to embrace the joy of exploration and discovery. For Jean, there is no “wrong way” in art; creativity is limitless.

DECEMBER MEETING

We had fun at the December meeting playing a new wrinkle of the Gift Steal game. There was no actual stealing. Instead, people blindly picked a gift by pulling in a string and seeing which eyeglass case came to them!

Hi Everyone!

Great job finishing UFO's for the December meeting. Holidays can be such a busy time so it's nice that some of you were able to get some projects done. Congratulations for finishing your UFO's: Ginny, Lois (won granola), Karen, Barbie (2 and she won the $20 Rosie's gift certificate), Rebecca, Judy, Jo, Deb L. (2), Sally (3!!!) and Carol (won granola). I know December is super busy for many of you but do try to finish a UFO, even if it's small for the January meeting.

Seaside Quilted Jacket

Quilted Jacket Workshop by our Guild member Deb Lancaster and thank you to Chris Bernet for teaching while Deb was on jury duty. We all had a lot of fun making these jackets! Thanks a Ton!

PROJECT LINUS JANUARY 2025

JANUARY 2025 PROJECT LINUS

A great big hug to those who turned in all the cute quilts and tops at the last Guild meeting. We finished up with amazing 37 finished quilts delivered to Ursula. She was so happy to get them, as they were making deliveries in a few days. Our total for the year is now 252.

Next Linus workshop is TUESDAY, February 18. There will be no workshop in January. The Guild is very busy with the retreat and the bus trip to Road to California. We will meet in my home on the third Tuesday of every month from 10:30am to approximately 2pm. Bring your own lunch. Please let me know if you'd like to be added to my email reminder list. I'll be in touch a few days prior to each workshop.

I know some of you can't make it to the workshops, but I would welcome assistance with cutting kits or choosing the backings for quilt tops. Please call me at 619-888-9197 and we'll find a good day to work together. Scrap buster tops are a great way to clear out your leftover fabric and they are quick to make.

If you have a long arm, some of these quilts look fantastic with some free motion quilting. I know we'll be busy with the Boutique in October. I will bring a few things to the Guild meeting for you to take home. Feel free to bring your creations if they are ready.

~Linda Duggan~

CCSA and HISTORY

Seaside Quilt Guild - San Diego

History - Remember to sign-up and checkout the Facebook page for inspiration and for patterns (FREE) for new projects!

CCSA:

January is here and that's when the focus for CCSA is on restocking the pantry items. The holidays are always a time of extra requests; however, then comes the new year and those who have found themselves in stress and need are hindered in receiving benevolence and assistance due to the holiday depletions. Consider a large dose of assistance by scoping out those discount areas in the local stores. Many stores end up with overstocks and excess items due to holiday fads and trends. In addition to the shelf stable items (pasta, canned goods, baby items, soups, freeze-dried items, canned meats, and items not requiring refrigeration), this year, the cold weather has been here early; therefore, socks and cold weather clothing is also helpful and needed. Let's fill up the table at our meeting! Thank you in advance for your contributions and caring.

--Stitchingly, Lois.
